

Don Brineman Memorial Golf Scramble hosted by

Wednesday, Aug. 27
Cascades Golf Course
3550 N. Kinser Pike,
Bloomington

Proceeds from the Scramble benefit the Bloomington Parks Foundation. One of the Foundation's primary goals is to provide scholarship funds for low-income youth in Bloomington to attend Bloomington Parks and Recreation programs and summer camps. This tournament, as well as the Lloyd Olcott Youth Endowment Fund, provides $20,000+ in scholarships to children from needy families, and offers kids the opportunity to have positive, and in some cases life-changing, experiences.

In case of inclement weather the day of the event, call the Cascades Golf Course pro shop at 812-349-3764 for up-to-the-minute cancellation and rescheduling information.

The 19th Hole

Join members of the Bloomington Parks Foundation for post-event hospitality, with beverages and appetizers provided. Meet the members of the Board of Directors and find out how the Foundation is helping youth in our community.

Don Brineman 1925–1995

Don Brineman was one of the founding members of the Bloomington Parks Foundation, and was one of its first officers. He was part of the committee that began the golf scramble as a fund-raiser for youth scholarships back in 1992. His wife, Doris Brineman, herself a long-time member of the Park Foundation, said, “He thought golf was a good thing for kids to learn. Having the Foundation Scramble named for him is a wonderful honor.”
